

Rehoboth Beach Homeowners' Association (RBHA)
Code of Conduct

As an active and engaged Board member, I shall:

- Recognize that the mission of RBHA is to serve the best interest of our membership as a whole regardless of my personal interests or point of view.
- Support the integrity and reputation of RBHA.
- Follow RBHA bylaws and policy guidelines.
- Conduct myself in such a way that my words and actions reflect good leadership and stewardship and are respectful of the opinions of fellow board members, RBHA members and friends of RBHA.
- Respect, publicly support and follow the decisions made by the RBHA Board.
- Respect and protect privileged confidential information to which the Board has access in the course of our official duties.
- Avoid any interest or activity that is in conflict with my role as a member of the RBHA Board or if I am conflicted, recuse myself from voting on the issue at hand.
- Declare all conflicts of interest that may hinder my ability to act in good faith in the best interests of RBHA.
- Not express RBHA opinion, positions or comment on matters before the City in any public forum or to the media. Only the President of RBHA or their designee shall speak for the organization on city issues. If I express my own opinion, I will make clear that it is solely my opinion as an individual and that I do not speak for RBHA.

I agree to comply with the statements and intent of this Code of Ethics.
